The Asian Pacific Islander Cultural Center (APICC) and the Luggage Store Gallery present a celebration for the 75th birthday of renowned Bay Area artist Flo Oy Wong, with an exhibition

FLO OY WONG THE WHOLE PIE

November 8 – December 28, 2013

Opening reception: Friday 8 November, 6-8pm

With the release of a monograph titled Flo Oy Wong, The Whole Pie (2013, published by APICC/Luggage Store) featuring an essay by B. Stephen Carpenter II, Professor of Art Education, Pennsylvania State University will be available for purchase.

Curated by Pamela Wu Kochiyama, Darryl Smith, and Laurie Lazer

The exhibition will celebrate Flo Oy Wong's 75th birthday with contributions from 75 national, local, and community artists invited by Flo Oy Wong, Pamela Wu Kochiyama, and Darryl Smith. Also included from Wong's body of work, The Baby Jack Rice Story, a new mixed media sculpture Departures, premiere of early self-portraits, and 527: Moussa/Odette Pie, a new work based on the book The Marcel Network by Fred Coleman. Contributing artists will create 527 individual ingredients to be installed at the exhibition.

Saturday, November 9, 12noon-4pm at Luggage Store Annex/Tenderloin National Forest, 509 Ellis Street, San Francisco:
Rooftop Alternative K-8 School will have a residency and present A Slice of Life, works created by the Rooftop community with support of Flo Oy Wong. Featured performances by The Marcus Shelby Orchestra and Amara Tabor-Smith.

Saturday, November 16, 1-4pm at Luggage Store Gallery, 1007 Market Street, San Francisco:
Flo Oy Wong will conduct a 527: Moussa/Odette Workshop where artists can make work to be included in THE WHOLE PIE exhibition.
